

The Signature Assignment will be an 8-10 page (excluding title page and references page) research essay building upon lessons from this course. In particular, you will need to discuss key emerging ethical issues related to one of the following topics:

Treatment of Illegal Immigrants and Asylum seekers [For an example, please see this video: The Atlantic (2018) How Trump's Family Separation Traumatized Children [Video file]. Retrieved from <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VFJzKmdldos> (17:17)]

Please make sure to include each of the following topics in your Signature assignment

- Identify and cite the current statistics that further explore and expand on the current state of the moral topic you have chosen to explore for your Signature assignment
- Describe the current laws and legal cases regarding the moral topic you have chosen to explore for your Signature assignment
- Research or explore possible ethical guidelines that can be developed to help navigate through the moral topic you have chosen to explore for your Signature assignment
- Explore the key challenges of implementing the ethical guidelines that you have identified regarding the moral topic you have chosen to explore for your Signature assignment

You should use a minimum of 6-7 academic sources in support of your Signature Assignment.

Additional Writing Guidelines:

Double-spaced with 1-inch margins and typed in 12-point Times New Roman. Include a Title page and Reference page (both not included in the overall 5 – 8 page count)